Arrival in Brussels

All Hotels are located at or very near the Place Rogier in Central Brussels (see map on reverse side). They are within a short taxi ride of the three main railway stations (Gare du Midi, Gare Centrale, Gare du Nord). They are, in fact, only about five minutes walk from the Gare du Nord, and participants arriving by train are therefore advised to leave the train at this station when possible. The youth hostel is close to the Gare Centrale.

Those arriving by air are warned that the taxi fare from the airport to Central Brussels is rather high. A train service links the airport with the three main railway stations (Gare du Midi, Gare Centrale and Gare du Nord), the journey taking about 20 minutes. Participants will effect a considerable saving of money if they take this train and complete their journey to the hotel by taxi or on foot from the stations.

Those arriving by car should follow signs indicating the center of Brussels ("Centrum") and enquire about the location of their hotel when they are in the central area.

Location of the Institute

The Institute is situated in Rhode-Saint-Genèse, some 10 km south of the center of Brussels on the road to Waterloo and Charleroi (see map on reverse side).

Near the "Gare du Midi", you can take busses 136, 137, W or 365a to VKI (Rhode-Saint-Genèse) and alight at the "Espinette Centrale".

A train also links the three main railway stations with the station at Rhode-Saint-Genèse, which is about 2,5 km from the VKI.

Transport provided by the Institute

A special bus will leave from the Place Rogier (in front of the Hotel Hilton Brussels City – former Hotel Albert 1er) at 08.00 a.m.

At the end of the meeting, the bus will give a lift to the participants for the Gare du midi (South station) where they can catch Thalys, Eurostar or a train to the airport (20 min).
